

DRA. MA.ELENA MEDINA MORA

Born in Mexico City in 1951. She is the General Director the National Institute of Psychiatry Ramón de la Fuente (México). Has a Ph.D. in Social Psychology from the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM), where she is member of the Board of Directors and teaches in the schools of Psychology and Medicine. Is a full researcher of the National Institutes of Health and member of the National System of Researchers in the highest level possible. Was admitted in the Colegio Nacional (National Academy) in 2006. Is member of the National Academy of Medicine, of the Mexican Academy of Science and of the National School of Psychologists and since 1986 of the World Health Organization Expert Committee on Addictions. Among other recognitions she has received: The National Award in Public Health "Gerardo Varela", the Award on Psychiatry from the Camelo Foundation, the National Award of Excellence in Research by a Senior Investigator from the National Hispanic Science Network on Drug Abuse (United States), Provost Distinguished International Scholar at Penn State University, the WHO Director-General Special Recognition Award for accomplishments in the area of tobacco control, and the Award of Excellence in International Leadership from the National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA). Doctor Medina-Mora's areas of interest are methodological, psychosocial, and epidemiological issues as they relate to addictions and mental health. Has published more than 210 articles in peer review scientific journals, 187 book chapters and 7 books. Her work has received more than 2000 citations in Mexico and in other countries.